30-31 March 2022, DUBLIN, IRELAND - TRAINING WORKSHOP - DELIVERABLE 2.4

In two intensive days, about 55 academic staff from Albanian Universities and European partners attended the meeting in Dublin, at College of Business, TDU where experts and lectors explained and discussed different theoretical and practical issues about benefits of Entrepreneurship Education by Kare Moberg (Senior Researcher, Danish Foundation for Entrepreneurship) or Characteristics of Entrepreneurship (EntreComp), by Professor Tom Cooney, integrating it with Managing Cultural Change at Schools and Universities, Paul O'Reilly (Director, Growth Hub, TU Dublin). Entrepreneurial Learning and Entrepreneurial Teaching Methods were in the focus of the first day followed by the topic: Designing Entrepreneurship Education Programs for Secondary Schools (Junior Achievement Ireland).

The participants learned about how to stimulate Entrepreneurial Behaviour in Primary Schools BY Jerry Kennelly (Founder, Junior Entrepreneur Programme) and how to design Entrepreneurship modules and courses, tools to be used and case studies, other many issues related to by Prof. TOM COONEY, etc.

25 – 26 May 2022. LEON. SPAIN - MEETING ON DESIGNING THE ENTREPRENEURSHIP COURSES (D.3.1)

The meeting in Leon, 3 Albanian partners presented four draft modules of training courses in order to get support about the course content to pre-university teachers, university teachers and university students and get useful insight from the other European partners and the Ministry of Education, Sports and Youth:

During the meeting in León, the following aspects for each module will be presented and discussed: core content, learning objectives and outcomes, competences, delivery methods, activities and assessment methods.

Additionally, the Albanian Entrepreneurial Network (AEN) (D.3.3) has been presented. The AEN is created to support and develop competencies of teaching. The network guarantees the homogeneity expected by the Ministry of Education Sports and Youth in order to accomplish a comprehensive VET system for teacher training.

APRIL 2022 - EQUIPMENT PURCHASE AND DELIVERY - COMPLETED SUCCESSFULLY

Under the action that finalizes the Deliverable 3.2. Integration of the entrepreneurship courses to the existing TEAVET and U3M-AL Centres in Albanian Universities, the equipment purchase tender procedure has been finalized with the delivery and the purchase contract closure. The equipment has been integrated at each training center, ready to support the training activities. Ads co-coordinator, UV took care of this process, in close collaboration with the coordinator of the project.

26 MAY 2022 – PROJECT COORDINATION MEETING IN LEON, SPAIN

In 26 May 2022, The project committee meeting has been held with the participation of coordinators of all partners. Some issues have been discussed and decisions have been concluded like the next meeting in Vlora, the period of pilot courses implementation, the finalization of MoU for AEN network establishment and the accreditation process and procedures of document preparation.
